Mr. HODES introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Financial Services, and in addition to the Committees on the Budget and Ways and Means, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

A BILL

To amend the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act of 2008 to strike the authority of the Secretary of the Treasury to extend the Troubled Asset Relief Program after 2009, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Stop Any TARP Ex-
5 tension Act of 2009”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 The Congress finds as follows:

1 (1) On October 7, 2008, Congress established
2 the Troubled Assets Relief Program (TARP) as part
3 of the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act (Pub-
4 lic Law 110–343; 122 Stat. 3765) and allocated
5 $700,000,000,000 for the purchase of toxic assets
6 from banks with the goal of restoring liquidity to the 7 financial sector and restarting the flow of credit in 8 our markets.

9 (2) The Secretary of the Treasury, without con-
10 sultation with the Congress, changed the purpose of 11 Troubled Assets Relief Program and began injecting
12 capital into financial institutions through a program
13 called the Capital Purchase Program (CPP) rather 14 than purchasing toxic assets.

15 (3) Lending by financial institutions was not 16 noticeably increased with the implementation of the 17 Capital Purchase Program and the expenditure of 18 $250,000,000,000 of the funds under the Troubled
19 Assets Relief Program, despite the goal of the pro-20 gram.

21 (4) The recipients of amounts under the Capital
22 Purchase Program are now faced with additional re-
23 strictions related to accepting those funds.

24 (5) A number of community banks and large fi-
25 nancial institutions have expressed their desire to re-

1 turn their Capital Purchase Program funds to the 2 Secretary of the Treasury and the Secretary has 3 begun the process of accepting receipt of such funds.

4 (6) The Secretary of the Treasury should not 5 unilaterally determine how these returned funds are 6 spent in the future and the Congress should play a 7 role in any determination of future spending of 8 funds returned through the Troubled Assets Relief 9 Program.

10 SEC. 3. REPEAL OF TARP EXTENSION AUTHORITY.

11 Section 120 of the Emergency Economic Stabilization
